IMPORTANT

- (1) All candidates for judicial office, or their political committees, shall file periodic reports in the year in which they are to be elected.
- (2) In any calendar year during which there is a regularly scheduled election, a pre-election report is required to be filed before any election in which the candidate has made expenditures, but only if the candidate is opposed. Judicial candidates are prohibited by law from individually accepting campaign contributions.
- (3) The receiving office must be in actual receipt of the required report by 5:00 p.m. on the deadline. If the deadline falls on a weekend or legal holiday, the office must be in actual receipt of the required report by 5:00 p.m. on the first working day before the deadline. Reports may be faxed or emailed.
